Scriptural Leadership Essay Topic and Guidelines

When you go to college, your days will be filled with classes, studying, hanging out with like-minded friends, and participating in student activities. Your life as a college student will be quite busy!

One of the goals at New Testament Church of Milwaukee during 2018 is “Helping one another to grow in grace by practicing the one another commands in the Bible.” There are 32 “one another injunctions” noted in the Bible. The most recorded is the “one another command” of love.

After meditating on 1 John 4:12 and taking into consideration the teachings at New Testament Church (including the lessons learned on the “one another commands”), write an essay with a focus on the following question:

- How do you plan to apply the lessons about “The One Another Commands” to your life as a busy college student?

Note: You may include any additional scriptures to support your answer.

Guidelines and Criteria

The guidelines and criteria listed below will be used to evaluate your essay.

- Demonstrated understanding of the Bible verses and essay topic listed in essay prompt
- 2-pages typed
- APA-format (1” margins, 12-point font, double-spaced, and proper documentation of citations)
- Well-organized essay
- Mechanics of the essay (i.e. capitalization, grammar, spelling, and punctuation)
- Inclusion of scriptural references and citations
- Cover Sheet - Please include your name on your Leadership Essay “Cover Sheet” ONLY!

Graduate Recognition Ceremony Essay Reading:

The Student of the Year Scholarship award recipient(s) will be asked to read his or her essay(s) in the sanctuary during the Graduate Recognition Ceremony on Sunday, June 24, 2018. We encourage all applicants to practice reading their essay. Participation in the ceremony is required unless there is a legitimate excuse (such as required attendance at a pre-college summer program) that is accepted by the New Testament Church Education/Scholarship Committee.
